

It's not ok!

One in three women across the world will be affected by domestic violence at some point in their life.

Join us in a Global Moment

From the 25th November there will be 16 Days of Activism where Mothers' Union members and others will gather around the world to pray for an end to gender-based violence, and for those affected by it.

Join us at Christ Church, Nailsea
in a global show of solidarity on 28th November at 2:30pm
