Christ Church Nailsea and St Quiricus & St. Julietta Tickenham

“ To know Christ and to make Him known ”

Sunday, 14th October — Trinity 20

A Warm Welcome

to any visitors joining us today. At Christ Church, there are toys and books for young children at the back of church if needed. Older children sometimes have their own activities during the service. At Tickenham Church, there are toys for young children, at the back of the church. Please ask a sides-person if you need any assistance. Both churches offer refreshments after the main morning services. Please stay and join us.

Collect for Trinity 20

God, our light and our salvation: illuminate our lives, that we may see your goodness in the land of the living, and looking on your beauty may be changed into the likeness of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Today at Tickenham Church, we welcome the family and friends of Melanie Clarke, to her baptism at 12.15pm. Congregation members are welcome to stay and attend.

Revd Jules Harris: During the month of October, the Revd Jules Harris, Curate of Wraxall, will be on placement with us. She'll be taking part in Sunday services at both churches.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! On Saturday, 6 October, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, Peter Hancock, licensed me as a Reader in the Benefice of Christ Church Nailsea with Tickenham. Thank you to everyone who has supported me during my training to become a Reader. There are so many of you that I couldn't write down all your names! In the words of a well-known song "...seldom is heard but an encouraging word." I must say you have all been encouraging over the last four-plus years. I will now appear with the blue scarf that is the trademark of the Reader. There are still two more years of training to go, I don't know it all yet and probably never will, but I will try to serve the Benefice to the best of my ability and with God's help. Every blessing, Richard Deanery Choral Evensong: All are most welcome to come along to All Saints, Wraxall on Sunday, 21st October 2018 at 6.30 pm for the Deanery Choral Evensong led by the combined choirs of the Portishead Deanery This special service will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the First World War. The service will be led by Rev Fran Binding and the speaker will be the Area Dean, Revd. Steve Tilley. Do join us!

After 8s Meeting: We meet TOMORROW, Monday, 15th October, and Gill Brown will give an illustrated talk on Otters. The meeting will be at Pat Eveleigh's at 6 Woodland Road, Nailsea at 8 pm.

Volunteers Needed: (CC) to help operate the sound desk. This is a really vital role for our church worship, ensuring that everyone can hear what is going on. The desk is actually really easy to use and full training will be given, so please don't be put off by all those scary-looking knobs and buttons. We need to have a team of people who know how to operate it, if only on an ad hoc basis (though if you wanted to go on the regular rota that would be even more wonderful). Why not have a go just to see what's involved? Please speak to Ali or Malcolm Pemble if you are interested.

Concert at Christ Church: We are hosting a super concert on Saturday 20th October at 7pm by a group of singers called 'CANTANTI' (Italian for singers) - they are members/former members of Bristol Bach Choir. The ladies and gentlemen of Cantanti (together with a small wind band) perform music from 16th Century to modern - Tallis via American Spirituals, Barbershop, Gershwin to the Beatles. The concert is in aid of Christ Church proposed re-ordering, and tickets are now available from the Church Office (tel. 01275 859210) or from John Broughton tel 01275 858304 - refreshments will be available, and tickets cost £8.00 in advance, or £10.00 on the night.

Annual Memorial Services: Sunday, 4th November, 4pm at Tickenham Church and 6.30 at Christ Church. There are now lists in both churches for you to add the name of a loved one you'd like remembered during the service.

Fun@Four: Cake donations would be much appreciated for the tea at Fun@4 on Sunday afternoon, 28th October. If you can make a tray-bake or cake for the event, please have a word with Linda. Thank you. Bev.

WW1 Armistice Centenary at St Q&J Tickenham: This year, will be on Remembrance Sunday, 11th November. We will commemorate the event with a Cascade of Poppies, knitted by wonderful friends, and draped down the side of the Church Tower. For each poppy knitted, we are offering for loved ones to be remembered too, their names written on a special card and displayed on Nov 11th. For each card, we ask for a donation (recommended £2), half will be given to the Royal British Legion and half to our beautiful church. The collection is currently being taken at Tickenham Church where a small display of poppies is already on show. Please do invite friends to remember their loved ones on Remembrance Sunday with a superbly spectacular event!

Poppies, Poppies and more Poppies: We would very much like you to continue to knit or crochet more poppies in time for Tickenham Church to display them on 11th November. We need them by 31st October. If you need a knitting pattern, please ring the office on 859210.

Christ Church Book and Puzzle Fair (and cake stall!) is on Saturday, November 3rd at 9.30am in the Vestry Hall to raise funds for the re-ordering. We'd be delighted to receive any paperbacks and jigsaw puzzles that you may have finished with, making space in your shelves and cupboards to buy some new ones at the sale! We'd also love to receive some cakes or biscuits for the cake stall. Proceeds from the coffee/tea sales will go towards the Flower Fund.

The Tuesday Group at 6, Woodland Road will meet on October 16th, 30th and November 13th and 27th, starting at 10.30am. We'll read about and discuss some events in the life of Moses. For more information, see Maurice or Pat, or phone (852559) or e-mail mauriceandpat@blueyonder.co.uk. Or just turn up – we'd love to see you.

Films 4 U: On Friday, 26th October at 7.30pm at Nailsea Methodist Church, the film 'Babette's Feast' will be shown. All welcome.
