

Lee Abbey 2018

So far, 60 people have expressed an interest in going to Lee Abbey in North Devon for a church weekend in September 2018. We are going to combine with the Benefice of Pill, Portbury and Easton in Gordano and have the possibility of 108 places. However, before offering the remaining places to the other benefice, we'd like to secure as many places as possible for Christ Church and Tickenham.

PLEASE contact Jill or Tony as soon as possible to register your interest. Those who've been before will tell you how great Lee Abbey weekends are!

We are going to give a brief presentation of Lee Abbey during coffee time TODAY at Christ Church at 11.45am, following the morning services at both churches. Please do come to the presentation and get a taste of the beautiful area and all that Lee Abbey offers.

Family Event :On Saturday, 18th November 6-7.30pm in the Methodist 'Doug Horley Science Praise Party' tickets £5 each (under 5's free) If children would like to come along, but no adult can accompany them, Beverley is going, so can look after them for you. Numbers are limited and Beverley is selling tickets.

In the afternoon, 2-4pm on the 18th November, Doug Horley is leading a training session on 'Including Children in Worship and Prayer' Tickets £10 each. If anyone is interested from Christ Church or Tickenham, Beverley is going and is selling tickets for this as well. For both events contact her on 01275 790520.

Café Create: On Friday, 15th September, Cafe Create presents the remarkable singer/songwriter Atlum Schema on a brief autumn tour. His haunting vocal style and lyrical complexity is married to a melodic genius and clever use of sound loops. £5 a ticket from the Holy Trinity office or on the door is an absolute bargain.

Doors and usual Cafe Create atmosphere from 7.30 p.m. Atlum Schema will play from 8.00 p.m - 10.00 p.m. with a long interval of 30 minutes. Do try and be there. Great opportunity to invite friends to an event on church premises.
