

LATEST NEWS

20 March 2020

In line with Church of England guidelines, there will be no services, meetings or gatherings of any sort at either of our churches until further notice. However, our churches will be open for a limited period this weekend to allow personal, private prayer, please see our website for more details.

PLEASE WOULD YOU LET ANYONE YOU MEET OR ARE IN CONTACT WITH KNOW THE LATEST NEWS AND THAT NEWS WILL BE UPDATED
REGULARLY ON THE WEBSITE, THANK YOU.

We will be supporting the Archbishops' call for a Day of Prayer on Mothering Sunday 22 March and will light candles in both our churches at 7:00pm.

IN YOUR OWN HOME 7pm THIS MOTHERING SUNDAY

The Archbishops of Canterbury and York urge us to join with Christians Together in England to place a lighted candle in a front room window as a visible symbol of the light of life, Jesus Christ, our source and hope in prayer. At such a time as this, when so many are fearful and there is great uncertainty, we are reminded of our dependence on our loving Heavenly Father and the future that He holds. Thank you.

Louise, our administrator will be working partly in her office and partly at home, but will keep her computer on for emergency contact. She will still be producing the weekly newsheet which will be available only on the website.

Christ Church, Nailsea Opening Hours

Christ Church will be open at the following times to allow visitors time for personal prayer for our Nation and for specific needs they are aware of:

Saturday 21 March between the hours of 10:00am and 11:00am.

Sunday 22 March between the hours of 6:30pm and 7:30pm.

St Quiricus and St Julietta, Tickenham Opening Hours

Tickenham Church will be open at the following times to allow visitors time for personal prayer for our Nation and for specific needs they are aware of. Please note that the road closures in the area are making access to the church difficult:

Sunday 22 March between the hours of 10:30am and 11:30am and 6:30pm and 7:30pm.

Sunday 29 March between the hours of 10:30am and 11:30am.

Richard Wheller
Licensed Reader